B. Dear Bela,

Hope this letter will find you in good health. We are fine here.

I hope you have read 'The Selfish Giant' by Oscar Wilde. Can you tell me why did the giant open the gate? Why did he love the children whom he hated earlier? I think there was a great change in the giant's mind. There was a revelation within him that being selfish is living alone and in pain. He noticed that when he was unselfish and when he loved the children, even nature became happy.

Write your own opinion. With respect and love to all.
