

The Thirsty Crow

LESSON PLAN

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

- Appreciating the presence of mind shown by the crow
- Reading, listening and understanding the lesson
- Answering questions
- Learning to write neatly
- Vocabulary— Words, meanings, spellings, pronunciation
- Grammar—Use of ‘a’ and ‘an’
- Learning to converse

WARM UP

- Ask the students to name some common birds they have seen.
- Tell the students that crow is considered a very clever bird.

Outcome: Learning that one should think coolly when in a difficult situation.

READ AND ENJOY

- Read aloud the lesson twice, allowing students to follow carefully.
- Explain words, spellings, pronunciation and meanings.
- Tell the students to read the lesson at home.

Outcome: Recognising words, sentences, speaking, reading, pronunciation.

READ AND UNDERSTAND

- Let the students do Exercise A on their own.
- Discuss Exercises B and C with the students.

Outcome: Reading, understanding and answering the questions.

GRAMMAR IS FUN

- Give examples to explain to the students the use of ‘a’ with consonant sounds and ‘an’ with vowel sounds.

- Let the students answer if the word concerned starts with a vowel or a consonant. Then determine if 'a' or 'an' should be used and written.

Outcome: Use of 'a' and 'an'; applying 'a' and 'an' with nouns.

LET'S SPELL

- The students can select the right word from the Help Box and complete the words in the exercise.
- Teacher can have a spelling test orally in class.

Outcome: Learning spellings and writing them down.

WORD POWER

- Let the students match the words and their opposites.
- Let the students cross the odd one out. Let them explain the logic they have used in crossing the word.

Outcome: Learning opposites and logic behind odd words.

LET'S LISTEN

- Let the students listen to the passage twice. Tell the students to listen very carefully.
- Then read each question and ask the students to answer orally.
- Correct them where required.

Outcome: Listening attentively, answering questions orally only after understanding.

LET'S SPEAK

- Read aloud each pair of given words clearly, bringing out the difference between s and S.
- Suggest more words using the two sounds, e.g., (s) sea, soft, slow, etc. (ʃ) sharp, show, share, etc.

Outcome: Learning to differentiate s and ʃ and pronounce correctly.

LET'S CONVERSE

- Ask two students to enact the conversation.
- Correct the pronunciation, pauses, inflexion, etc.

Outcome: Learning speech, rhythms, pauses and inflexions.

WRITING SKILLS

- Ask the students to write correct words in the blanks.

Outcome: Learning to write neatly and correctly.
