LESSON PLAN

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

- Learning to be well-behaved, helpful, kind and polite.
- Learning about dealing with naughty people.
- Answering the questions
- Vocabulary – Words, meanings, spellings, pronunciation.
- Grammar – Interjections and their usage.
- Learning to converse.

WARM UP

- Discuss good and helpful behaviour.
- Discuss – Do the students think it is necessary to be helpful and polite?
- How do they deal with friends, neighbours or classmates who are naughty?
- Discuss the pictures and ask the students to respond – how do they behave at home, in class, in school, on the road and in public places?
- You can ask the students what they themselves admire.

Outcome: Helping others is a good habit.

READ AND ENJOY

- Read the lesson aloud and then ask the students to read in turns.
- Explain the meanings of words like complain, etc.
- Correct their intonation, stress, pronunciation, etc.
- Talk about the advantages of good and helpful behaviour – when in public and when alone.
- Relate this to their own lives and ask in-text questions: How do they behave with their parents and siblings? Are they well-behaved or naughty? etc.

Outcome: Reading aloud, listening attentively, learning new words, meanings, spellings, pronunciation.

READ AND UNDERSTAND

- Discuss the questions in Exercises A and B and ask the students to answer orally.
- Then, where necessary, write the questions on the board to help the students in answering questions, whether oral or written.

Outcome: Understanding and answering the questions orally and in writing.

GRAMMAR IS FUN

- Give examples of interjections from day-to-day life.

Outcome: Interjections and their usage.

LET'S SPELL

- Recognising the words learnt in the lesson.
- Ask the students to do the exercise on their own.
- Then do it on the board and let each one check his/her own work.

Outcome: Correct spellings, meanings and pronunciation.

WORD POWER

- Learning about forming words.
- Do Exercise E orally first and then ask the students to write it down.
- Do the exercise on the board, eliminating the letters that can be added to form the words and then ask the students to complete the words. Then they can write the exercise in their notebooks.

Outcome: Learning how to form new words.

LET'S LISTEN

- Listen to the accent, stress and intonation on the Digital Board so that you can guide the students accordingly.
- The teacher can read the passage aloud or ask the students to take turns reading so that they can understand it well.
- Then ask the students to answer the given questions orally.
- Check the students where necessary.

Outcome: Listening, understanding and answering the questions.

LET'S SPEAK

- Read aloud the words.
- Ask the students to read each word aloud.

Outcome: Differentiating between |p| sounds.

LET'S CONVERSE

- Listen to the accent, stress and intonation on the Digital Board, so that you can guide the students accordingly.
- Ask pairs of students to read aloud the conversation.
