- › Reading, listening and understanding the lesson
- › Answering the questions orally and in writing
- › Vocabulary–Words, meanings, spellings, pronunciation
- › Grammar–Kinds of pronouns and their usage
- › Learning to converse

Warm Up

- * First, the students will look at the pictures in Warm Up and identify them. These pictures are of some great men of the USA.
- * Discuss how ordinary people through hard work can reach great heights.
- * Ask the students to share any similar stories of achievement they know.

Outcome: Learning the value of hard work and perseverance in life.

Read and Enjoy

- * Explain briefly who Abraham Lincoln was–how he was against slavery as it existed in the USA. Give a brief idea of the horrors of slavery there.
- * Read the lesson aloud and ask the students to read in turns.
- * Ask questions like, “Do you think Abraham Lincoln was hardworking?” “Why was he called Honest Abe?”

Outcome: Read aloud, listen and understand words, meanings, spellings and pronunciation.

Read and Understand

- * The students will do Exercises A and B on their own. Announce the correct answers so that the students can check and correct their answers.
- * Discuss Exercises C and D. When the correct answers emerge, dictate them to the students to write in their notebooks.
- * Think and Answer–Discuss the question and let the students answer.

Outcome: Reading and understanding, and answering questions orally and in writing.

Grammar is Fun

- * Using the blackboard and examples from class, teach students all kinds of pronouns.
- * All exercises can be done by the students on their own. Announce the correct answers so that the students can check and correct their answers.

Outcome: Kinds of pronouns and their usage.

Let's Spell

- * Ask the students to do this activity their own by selecting the correct spellings.
- * Announce the correct answers aloud and the students can correct their answers.
