WORKSHEET 1

COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage carefully.

There was once a fat green frog who lived in a small round pond not far from a farm. Sometimes, one of the white ducks belonging to the farmer waddled over to the little pond to see if there was any food there.

Each time, she went and saw the fat green frog dived after him. But no matter how many times she turned herself upside down to catch the frog, she couldn't get him.

He croaked with laughter each time. The duck was angry. She didn't like being laughed at.

One day, when the duck came to visit the pond, she saw that the green frog had another frog with him. The duck decided to come back later and eat all the eggs of the frog.

The frog and his wife were very happy. The wife laid hundreds of eggs. They were tiny black things and she laid them in jelly. The jelly swelled up and rose to float on the surface of the pond, lying in the sun. Then, the duck came to eat the eggs. She saw them floating on the water and was going to have a feast. The two frogs croaked with laughter. Every time, the duck gobbled the jelly, it slipped out of her beak. It was so slippery! It was quite impossible to eat. And so, the eggs were safe.
