

Chapter 6: Plants in the Surroundings and Environment

Worksheet 1

1. Fill in the blanks.

- (i) We breathe in _____ and breathe out _____ .
- (ii) Dead animals become a part of _____ .
- (iii) Plants are home to many _____ .
- (iv) A flower turns into a _____ .
- (v) _____ grow into new plants.

2. Write T for true and F for false statement.

- (i) Wheat and rice have fibrous roots.
- (ii) Midrib distributes water and food in the leaf.
- (iii) Leaves take oxygen from air to produce food.
- (iv) Jute is obtained from husk of coconut fruit.
- (v) We get rubber from latex of rubber tree.

3. Name the part of following plants which we eat.

- (i) Carrot _____
- (ii) Potato _____
- (iii) Spinach _____
- (iv) Cauliflower _____
- (v) Pulses _____

Chapter 6: Plants in the Surroundings and Environment

Worksheet 2

1. Give one word for the following.

- (i) A green pigment which gives green colour to leaves
- (ii) The part of shoot which bears leaves, buds, flowers and fruits
- (iii) The process of making of food by plants
- (iv) The seeds of plants which contain proteins
- (v) The form in which food is stored in plants

2. Match the following.

Column A

- (i) Coir
- (ii) Paper
- (iii) Rubber
- (iv) Gum
- (v) Medicine

Column B

- (a) Bamboo
- (b) Acacia
- (c) Coconut fibre
- (d) Neem
- (e) Latex

3. Answer these questions.

- (i) What is the function of root hair?
- (ii) Why are leaves called 'kitchen of the plant'?
- (iii) What is latex?
- (iv) What products do we get from trees?
- (v) What are cereals?