

Chapter 8: Sound and Noise

Worksheet 1

1. Fill in the blanks.

- (i) _____ sounds make us feel good.
- (ii) Loud sounds cause _____ pollution.
- (iii) _____ sounds make us alert during emergency.
- (iv) All objects in nature make _____ by vibration in them.
- (v) We communicate with each other by producing _____.

2. Write T for true and F for false statement.

- (i) Noise is an irritating sound.
- (ii) We can reduce noise pollution by planting trees.
- (iii) Loudspeakers produce soft sounds.
- (iv) Warning sounds give us warning signals.
- (v) Noise can make us deaf.

3. Tick (✓) the activities which produce pleasant sounds while Cross (X) the ones which cause noise.

- (i) Blowing of horns _____
- (ii) Sounds produced in factories _____
- (iii) Zoom of aeroplane _____
- (iv) Singing of birds _____
- (v) Sound of wind chime _____

Chapter 8: Sound and Noise

Worksheet 2

1. Give one word for the following.

- (i) The emergency number of ambulance
- (ii) The sounds meant for saving life and property
- (iii) Pollution caused by the sound of bursting crackers
- (iv) Sounds which make us feel good
- (v) Animals communicate by producing this

2. Tick (✓) the harmful effects of noise from the following.

- (i) Damage of eardrum
- (ii) Deficiency of iodine in the body
- (iii) High blood pressure
- (iv) Cracks in buildings
- (v) Wilting of plants

3. Answer these questions.

- (i) What is noise?
- (ii) How do we communicate?
- (iii) What are warning sounds?
- (iv) What are unpleasant sounds?
- (v) What are the emergency numbers of police and fire?