

Mice are Nice

LESSON PLAN

This poem tells us that though most people don't like mice, the poet likes them very much. He gives reasons why he likes them.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

- Enjoying poetry and understanding it.
- Learning to enjoy humour.
- Answering the questions on the poem.

READING

- Read the poem aloud with correct pronunciation and rhythm.
- Explain the poem.
- Ask the students if they like mice.

Outcome: Learning recitation, word meanings and pronunciation.

READ AND UNDERSTAND

- Discuss Exercises A and B. The students can mark the answers in their books.

Outcome: Understanding the poem and answering questions on it.

ACTIVITY/PROJECT

- Let the students colour Mickey Mouse. You can tell them Mickey Mouse was created by Walt Disney.

Outcome: Expressing one's creativity.