- › Reading, listening and understanding the lesson.
- › Answering questions orally and in writing.
- › Vocabulary–Words, meanings, spellings, pronunciation, word grid.
- › Grammar–Articles and their usage.
- › Learning to converse.

Warm Up

- * Give a brief introduction about the Ramayana.
- * Ask the students if they have ever been to Ramlila.
- * Help the students do the activity given in Warm Up.

Outcome: Knowing about the scriptures of different religions.

Read and Enjoy

- * Ask the students to read aloud the lesson in turns.
- * Explain the lesson.
- * Ask questions like, “Have you ever taken part in a play?” “Do you think the role of everyone is important?”

Outcome: Read aloud and understand the words, meanings, spellings and pronunciation.

Read and Understand

- * Let the students do Exercises A and B on their own.
- * Discuss Exercises C and D. Ask one question at a time.
- * When a correct reply is given, write it down on the blackboard. Students can transcribe the answers in their books.

Outcome: Understand and answer the questions orally and in writing.

Grammar is Fun

- * Explain with the use of blackboard and given examples, how to use articles.
- * Discuss Exercises E and F. Ask the students to fill in the answers. Announce the correct answers aloud. Students can correct answers in pairs.

Outcome: Learning the use of articles.

Let's Spell

- * Let the students identify the correct spellings and circle them. Announce the correct answers. Students can correct their answers in pairs.

Outcome: Learning spellings, meanings and pronunciation.

Word Power

- * Let the students try to find the words connected with teamwork. You can then announce the answers.

Outcome: Finding words in a grid.

Let's Listen

- * Read the names twice.
- * The students will write 'R' or 'M' in the boxes.
- * Correct their answers.

Outcome: Listening attentively and answering the questions.

Let's Converse

- * Select two students to enact the roles of Rahul and Sid.
- * Enact the conversation in the class.
- * Involve the class in assessment of the conversation enacted.

Outcome: Learning to converse correctly—pronunciation, pause, emphasis and inflexion.

Let's Speak

- * Read each column first and make the students repeat each word after you. Then, say each pair of words aloud, clearly showing the distinction. Then ask them to repeat after you.

Outcome: Differentiate between |v| and |w| words.

Writing Skills

- * Discuss Exercises L and M. Let the students do Exercise J on their own.
- * Help them in doing Exercise M.

Outcome: Enhancement of writing skills.

Activity/Project

- * The students will learn the poem and recite it in the class along with actions. You can make pairs of students.

Outcome: Memorising the poem.
