

Poem

Where Go the Boats

READ AND DISCOVER

This little poem is by R L Stevenson, who wrote lots of poems and famous books like Treasure Island and Kidnapped. This poem is about a little boy who sits on the bank of a river and floats little paper boats on it along with leaves. It shows him enjoying the beauty of the river, the scenery through which it flows and the joy of sailing his boats.

---

Outcome: Enjoying and understanding the poem.

---