Exercise A can be done by the students on their own. However, here is a sample:

Humpty Dumpty came to our class, one day. We were astonished to see an egg-shaped little man, who had eyes and ears and a nose, and could talk and had little arms and legs! He wore a red shirt and blue trousers and a bright yellow cravat! He said, 'Hello, I'm Humpty Dumpty!' We all wished him and wanted to talk to him. He sat down in the teacher's chair and looked at us. "Do you know what my name means?" he asked. One of the girls giggled and said, "Round and wobbly?" Humpty didn't like that. "It describes my beautiful shape!" he announced. "You are all higgledy-piggledy and have no shape at all. I am celebrating my un-birthday today. Have you any presents for me?" "What's an un-birthday?" asked one of the boys. "We celebrate birthdays!" "How boring!" said Humpty. "You get only one day to celebrate in a year? I'm going!" he announced and walked out of the class, as we all burst into laughter.
