Once upon a time an old lady found a baby under a rose bush. She took her home and named her Rose. Rose grew up into a very pretty girl. She was very kind and did all the work in the cottage. Every day the old woman went to the market. One day, a stranger came to the cottage. He was thirsty and hungry and asked Rose for a drink of water and food. She drew some water from the well and gave it to him. Then Rose gave him some bread, an apple and a cup of milk. The man blessed her and went away. The next day, an old woman came. Her clothes were torn and she was lame. Rose gave her a gown and made her sit in a chair. She washed her feet and gave her food and milk. Suddenly, there was a flash and the woman changed into a fairy. She told Rose that the man who had come was her son, the Prince of Fairyland. He wished to marry her because she was so kind.
