

11. Little Red Hen

WORKSHEET 1

COMPREHENSION

Read the passage and answer the questions.

A woodcutter lived in the forest with his wife. He had two sons. They worked very hard. They cut wood and picked up sticks fallen in the forest. They sold this in the village and got a little money to buy food and cloths. But they kept a small garden. It had flowers and they grew some vegetables. They also had a guava tree. They were very happy. If anyone came to the forest, the woodcutter and his family gave them food and a place to rest. They were very kind and unselfish.
