Marty, the bear cub, was in trouble. He and his friend, Lily, the rabbit, had been out playing in the forest. Lily's mother had given them some berries and leaves to eat. Playing near the pond, Marty jumped in with a big splash. The water sprayed high onto a tree near the pond and hit a beehive. Suddenly, they heard a buzzing sound and bees swarmed around them. Lily ran fast and hid inside a thick bush! Marty was stuck. He could not get out of the pond because the bees were everywhere. Suddenly, his mom came there. She knew what to do.
