Chapter 6

WORKSHEET

I. Fill in the blanks

1.	The most frequently used views can be the bottom right of the w
	is the editing mode w frequently to create your slides.	here you'll work most
3.	displays all the slides of form of thumbnails.	your presentation in the
4.	You can show or hide your spe	aker notes with the
5.	Use to create an outline presentation.	e or storyboard for your
II. Match the following.
1.	Normal View	(a)
2.	Slide Sorter View	(b)
3.	Notes Page View	(c)
4.	Outline View	(d)
5.	Reading View	(e)
III. State whether True (T) or False (F).
1. You can get to Reading View from the taskbar by clicking on the Reading View button at the bottom of the slide window.
Screenshots are not useful for capturing the snapshots of programs or windows that you have opened on your computer.	opened on your
3.	Different slide view options are available	e on the Slide Show tab.

You may copy and paste a table from Excel onto any slide of your presentation.
A PowerPoint photo album is a presentation that you can create to display your personal or business photographs.
	slide of your presentation. A PowerPoint photo album is a presentation that you can create to display your personal or business