WORKSHEET 1

COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage carefully.

There lived a big elephant in a small village. Every day, this huge elephant went with his loving master to a deep river for a bath. On the way, there was an old shop, where a kind tailor stitched new clothes. He gave fresh fruits to the elephant every day. One day, the tailor was in a bad mood. When the elephant passed by, the unhappy tailor pricked a sharp needle into his thick trunk. The poor elephant cried in great pain, "Ouch!"

On his return from the river, the angry elephant threw muddy water on the clothes that the tailor was stitching, and turned them into dirty clothes. The tailor knew he had hurt the elephant. He gave him a bunch of six bananas, hugged him and said, "Sorry!" The elephant felt happy. They became good friends again.
