Worksheet 1

COMPREHENSION

Read the passage given and answer the questions below:

It was a dull day, cloudy and drizzling. Bunty, Mala and Gogi were stuck inside, unable to play in the park.

"And I was looking forward to playing with our new frisbee!" said Gogi, looking crestfallen.

"So was I," added Mala.

"Come on, guys!" said Bunty. "We can't do anything about the rain. Let's play an indoor game."

"Oh, no!" said Mala. "They're so boring!"

Gogi, being her twin, nodded vigorously. They always agreed with each other. Bunty was a couple of years older and he knew what to do.

"They aren't boring at all!" he announced. "You two come along. We will play so many games that you won't have time to get bored!"

They began by making paper boats and planes. Then they played snakes and ladders and went on to Ludo. Bunty pulled out an old version of Ludo called 'Chausar'. It was made of bright red cloth and divided into squares and there were brightly coloured wooden counters for the players. And, instead of dice, they used six cowries or shells. It was fascinating. Finally, they pulled out Papa's old carromboard and had a noisy game, when Mummy also joined them.

Nobody realised how soon time had passed. The rain had stopped when Mummy got up and announced, "Dinner! Come on!" They were looking forward now to the next rainy day.
