Worksheet 1

COMPREHENSION

Once, a policeman was travelling from Andaman to Kolkata in a ship with his trained dog. The policeman stood on the deck to watch the open sea. Suddenly, the dog fell into the sea. The dog was struggling to save its life. The policeman immediately ran to the captain. He requested him to stop the ship and save the dog's life. The captain widened his eyes and said, "Save a dog? Are you joking? We have some fixed rules to follow. We save only human beings. If any human being falls, we will stop the ship and save him/her."
