

The Little New Year

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Making the students understand the value of celebrations in school, at home and in society through creative study and art-related and social activities
- Understanding the need for friendly social interaction and collaboration, integrating discipline and communication at school, at home and in various public places
- Learning to appreciate the love, warmth and sharing spirit of festivals and significant days that we enjoy with others to add to our experience and growth
- ▶ Learning to be creative and make things of utility value and how they help in our celebrations
- In today's world, we need to understand and appreciate our own culture and respect and appreciate the culture of other people, groups and communities. This attitude needs to be fine-tuned so that we neither look down or feel ashamed of our own culture nor do we show disrespect for the culture of others. So, while reading and teaching this lesson, make it a point to give attention to the respect we owe to our ethnic roots as well as to the beliefs of others.
- Comprehension: Learning to read and understand the lesson or any passage and answer questions on it, including reference to the context
- Grammar: Adjectives their types: quality, quantity, number [cardinal and ordinal], demonstrative, possessive. Degrees of comparison: positive, comparative, superlative. Compound adjective formed with two words with a hyphen [-] in between.
- Listening, understanding, reading, speaking, pronouncing and writing correctly
- Building a vocabulary, spellings, words within words, word pairs, rhyming words, pronunciation, dictionary skills, writing a paragraph and a letter

Warm Up	Ask the students to bring pictures of their home celebrations and share groups of five. Guide their discussions.	in
Read and Enjoy	Read aloud the lesson or have the students read it. Explain it. The celebration personified as the Little New Year and he brings gifts for people in the form blessings. He asks Maurice to help him distribute the gifts. The whole story, Ellen Robena Field, is based on fantasy. Explain how we can go beyond real when we are imagining things.	of by
Read and	Exercises A, B and C: Explain the exercises. Do them orally first and then a	ask
Understand	the students to write the answers in their notebooks. It is advisable to che and assess individual work.	eck
Think and Answer	Exercises A and B: Explain the exercises. Discuss and do them orally first and the ask the students to write the answers in their notebooks. It is advisable to che and assess individual work.

Grammar Spot	abou	n up on what are adjectives – describing words – words that tell us more t a noun or a pronoun.
	♦ There	e are several types of adjectives:
		djectives of quality — tell us about the quality of a noun or pronoun [nice, d, kind, tall, etc.].
		djectives of quantity — tell us about the quantity of a noun or pronoun some, many, more, few, etc.].
	. ,	Adjectives of number – tell us how many and in what order – called cardinals [one, two, etc.]; ordinals [first, second, etc.].
	(IV) I	Demonstrative adjectives – point out nouns [this, that, those, these, etc.].
		ossessive adjectives – indicate possession or belonging [his, hers, their, our, etc.].
	answ ♦ Degr	ers. Announce the answers aloud and let them check their own work. ees of comparison of adjectives – used when we compare two or more s or pronouns. There are three degrees of comparison:
		ositive degree – describes noun/pronoun without any comparison [good, ad, weak, strong, etc.].
		comparative degree — when two nouns/pronouns are compared [better, vorse, weaker, stronger, etc.].
		Superlative degree — when more than two nouns/pronouns are compared best, worst, weakest, strongest, etc.].
		etimes we add 'more' or 'most'; or -er, -est; or we change the form pletely.
		cise B: Do the exercise orally and then ask the students to write the ers. Announce the answers aloud and let them check their own work.
Word Wise		cise A: Do this orally, asking the students for their suggestions and write on the blackboard. Students can write down any ten words they like.
Spell Well		cise A: Do this orally asking the students for their suggestions and write on the blackboard. Students can write down the correct answers.
Listen and Learn		aloud the poem or have the students read it. Explain it. Then ask the tions and tell the students to answer.
Converse and Connect	th	plain the exercise and tell the students to work with their partners to enact e conversation regarding resolutions. Walk around to guide and check their scussion.
Speak and Express		cise A: Read out and explain the exercise and discuss the celebration, uraging each student to add something.
Pronunciation		cise A: Explain the exercise. It is significant that all the words are spelt
Practice		rently and are pronounced alike [f sound]: f, ff, ph, -gh.
		each word aloud, asking the students to follow what is written, and tell them	n to repeat each word after you. The words with -gh are preceded by rent letters: ou or au-explain how there is a difference between enough, h and laugh.
Pronunciation		cise A: Ask the students to do this on their own. It is advisable to check assess individual work.

Write Well	$	Exercise A: Ask the students to do this on their own. A sample and hints are already given in the textbook. It is advisable to check and assess individual work.
Dictionary Skills		Exercises A and B: Ask the students to do this on their own. It is advisable to check and assess individual work.
AIL Activity	♦	Exercise A: Ask the students to bring the materials or supply from the school. The students can work on their own or in pairs. Guide them about what and how to do it.
Values and Life Skills	$	Exercise A: Read and explain the exercise. Discuss each option with the class. Explain why some options are acceptable and why some are not.