Worksheet 1

COMPREHENSION

Read the following paragraph and answer the questions below.

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time there lived an old man named Gepetto. He was a carpenter and very good at his work. But he was very lonely. One day, he found a very good piece of wood and made it into a little puppet. That night, a fairy came and waved a magic wand over the puppet and he became alive! He was now a little boy and Gepetto named him Pinocchio. He thought he would bring him up like his own son, send him to school and not be lonely anymore. But Pinocchio became friendly with very naughty and bad people. He told lies and ran away from school. After many adventures, he realised he had been very silly and naughty. He missed Gepetto. So, one day he came back. Gepetto hugged him. Now he behaved very well and went to school. The fairy rewarded him by turning him into a real little boy!

COMPREHENSION

Read the following story and answer the questions that follow:

Once upon a time an old lady found a baby under a rose bush. She took her home and named her Rose. Rose grew up into a very pretty girl. She was very kind and did all the work in the cottage. Every day the old woman went to the market. One day, a stranger came to the cottage. He was thirsty and hungry and asked Rose for a drink of water and food. She drew some water from the well and gave it to him. Then Rose gave him some bread, an apple and a cup of milk. The man blessed her and went away. The next day, an old woman came. Her clothes were torn and she was lame. Rose gave her a gown and made her sit in a chair. She washed her feet and gave her food and milk. Suddenly, there was a flash and the woman changed into a fairy. She told Rose that the man who had come was her son, the Prince of Fairyland. He wished to marry her because she was so kind. Rose and her mother agreed. The fairy took them to her beautiful palace, where Rose and the Prince were married and lived happily ever after.

Worksheet 1

COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time there lived four friends near a lake in a forest. They were a deer, a turtle, a mouse and a crow. They would meet every day and share stories about the forest. One day, a hunter saw the deer and wanted to catch it. He laid a net near the lake as a trap and sat on a tree branch, waiting for the deer. When the deer came, he trapped it in the net. The crow sitting on a nearby tree was so angry that he flew at the hunter and pecked him in his face and arms and legs. Frightened, the hunter lost his balance and fell off the branch. The mouse immediately nibbled at the net to set the deer free. The turtle crawled by, and the hunter thought he would catch the turtle too. So he got up to grab it, but the turtle slipped into the lake. The deer was free and ran away! The friends were very happy because they had been so clever.

Worksheet 1

COMPREHENSION

Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

Pravin and Hanu were going for a holiday. The problem was Hanu's dog, Benjy. Benjy wanted to go with them. Every time they tried to pack a bag, he would sit on it. He ran away with Hanu's shoes and hid them. He chewed up his toothbrush. He sat on the doormat, looking at Hanu sadly. Pravin and Hanu had planned to leave Benjy in a kennel for a few days till they returned. But now they were in a fix. Benjy stopped eating his food and looked so miserable that they wondered what to do. Finally, they decided to take Benjy with them. His collar and leash were put on and his plate and favourite blanket put into a bag. Benjy understood and began to run around the room, wagging his tail, barking happily! They loaded everything into the van, and Benjy sat proudly on the back seat, and off they went on their holiday.
